NOVEMBER/DECEMBER 2026 EDITION

THE MOMENT MAGAZINE

HIGHER LEARNING GUIDE

"Throughout the centuries, when the vast majority of Europe was illiterate, Jews maintained an educational infrastructure as their highest priority. It is no exaggeration to say that this lay at the heart of the Jewish ability to survive catastrophe, negotiate change and flourish in difficult circumstances."
—Rabbi Lord Jonathan Sacks z"l

HEBREW UNION COLLEGE

Discover your path to Jewish leadership, learning, and impact. Explore programs that empower you to serve, inspire, and shape the Jewish future across communities worldwide.

huc.edu

School of Rabbinical Studies

Put your vision and values into action as a rabbi who inspires and leads Jewish life around the world.

Choose between:

Campus-Based: Begin with a formative year in Jerusalem, then continue at one of our U.S. campuses for immersive study, mentorship, and leadership development.

Virtual Pathway: Stay rooted in your home community while completing ordination through a hybrid model of online study, short in-person intensives, and an Israel experience.

What you gain: Deep Torah learning, spiritual and professional formation, and a lifelong network of colleagues and mentors.

admissions@huc.edu

Debbie Friedman School of Sacred Music

Turn your musical talent into spiritual leadership. Prepare to serve as a cantor who leads worship, teaches, composes, and inspires through music and prayer.

What you gain: Rigorous musical training, spiritual development, and practical experience that prepare you to guide Jewish communities through song and meaning.

admissions@huc.edu

School of Education

Empower the next generation of Jewish learners and leaders.

Executive M.A. in Jewish Education (EMA): A flexible program for experienced educators that combines online learning, in-person intensives, and personalized mentoring.

DeLeT Program: A 13-month program combining graduate coursework with a yearlong day school residency in Los An-

DISCOVER ART, RESILIENCE & HOPE

HEBREW UNION COLLEGE EXHIBITIONS

HELLER MUSEUM NEW YORK

MOTHERS, PROPHETS, WARRIORS: WOMEN OF THE BIBLE
Through December 17

24 artists portray inspiring heroines' wisdom, courage, and agency

A JOYFUL NOISE! PHOTOGRAPHS BY LLOYD WOLF
Through December 17

A four-decade visual journey through the spirit of klezmer music

LOCATION: One West Fourth Street, New York, NY 10012
ADMISSION: Free
RESERVE FREE TOURS/INFO: hellermuseum@huc.edu

HOURS: Mondays through Thursdays, 9 am – 6:30 pm
VIEW: On the Heller Museum app at bloombergconnects.org
huc.edu/hellermuseum

TAUBE FAMILY CAMPUS, JERUSALEM

SACRED LAND
Jerusalem Biennale 2026
Through June 2027

Legendary photographer Ralph Gibson captures the soul of Israel, both ancient and contemporary.

LOCATION: 13 King David Street, Jerusalem
ADMISSION: Free
HOURS: Sundays through Thursdays, 9 am - 3 pm
INFO: +972-2-6203389; eyakobovich@huc.edu
VIEW: On the Heller Museum app at bloombergconnects.org
huc.edu/sacred land

SKIRBALL MUSEUM CINCINNATI

AN ETERNAL PEOPLE: THE JEWISH EXPERIENCE

LOCATION: 3101 Clifton Avenue, Cincinnati, OH 45220
ADMISSION BY APPOINTMENT ONLY/INFO: 513-487-3231; dherman@huc.edu
csm.huc.edu

geles, San Diego, or the Bay Area, leading to a California teaching credential and a Certificate in Jewish Day School Teaching.
What you gain: The skills and vision to design transformative learning experiences and lead thriving Jewish educational communities.
admissions@huc.edu

Zelikow School of Jewish Nonprofit Management

Lead the business of Jewish life. Earn your master's degree or certificate through flexible online learning and short in-person intensives.
What you gain: Strategic leadership, management, and innovation skills to make an impact in Jewish and nonprofit organizations, supported by a global network of professionals and mentors.
zschool@huc.edu

Israeli Programs on the Taube Family Campus, Jerusalem

Experience the heart of Jewish learning in Israel. Programs include the Israel Rabbinical Program, RIKMA M.A. in Pluralistic Jewish Education, and the Sugiyot

At UC Berkeley, three world-class institutions drive scholarship in Jewish and Israel studies with:

- Vibrant teaching
- Ground-breaking research
- Dynamic programs
- Extraordinary art and artifacts

UC Berkeley
The Helen Diller Institute for Jewish Law & Israel Studies
helendillerinstitute.berkeley.edu

UC Berkeley
Center for Jewish Studies
jewishstudies.berkeley.edu

MAGNES COLLECTION
OF JEWISH ART AND LIFE
magnes.berkeley.edu

Chayim bibliotherapy program.
What you gain: Immersive learning, pluralistic community, and a deepened connection to Jewish peoplehood and practice.
jerusalem@huc.edu

THE ALEPH ORDINATION PROGRAM'S JEWISH RENEWAL SEMINARY

The ALEPH Ordination Program's Jewish Renewal Seminary is dedicated to training the next generation of rabbis, cantors, rabbinic chaplains, and mashpi'im (spiritual directors). Founded over 20 years ago by Rabbi Zalman Schachter-Shalomi, these programs draw on the rich legacy of Jewish mystical and Hasidic traditions while incorporating innovative approaches to the revitalization of Jewish prayer, practice, and spiritual development. This low-residency program blends online video classes with periodic residential retreats, allowing students to pursue their education without disrupting their personal and professional lives. The seminary features a distinguished faculty composed of renowned rabbis, cantors, and educators celebrated for their scholarly expertise, spiritual depth, and passion for teaching. Programs: Rabbinic Ordination; Cantorial Ordination; Rabbinic Chaplain Ordination; Hashpa'ah (Spiritual Direction) Training. Financial Aid available.
Find out more at aop.aleph.org
Contact ordination@aleph.org

JEWISH STUDIES AT UC BERKELEY

Jewish Studies at UC Berkeley has a storied history of world-class scholarship and teaching. Our faculty are distinguished leaders in the fields of the Bible, rabbinics, Jewish history, Hebrew and Yiddish literature and Jewish culture and thought, while our graduate students will be tomorrow's leaders in Jewish Studies. The scholarship and activities of our faculty and students explore and contribute to the long chain of tradition that links the Jewish present with its past and future.
Learn more at jewishstudies.berkeley.edu

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA

The University of Florida's Bud Shorstein Center for Jewish Studies invites applications for its new interdisciplinary Graduate Certificate in Holocaust Studies. Explore the history of the Holocaust, its consequences, and legacies, drawing on the expertise of leading scholars and the University's rich academic resources. Whether you seek to deepen your knowledge, enrich your teaching, advance your research, or expand your professional expertise, this certificate offers an opportunity for intellectual and professional growth. Designed for learners at different stages of their careers and lives, the program welcomes those interested in education, museums, archives, public history, and a deeper understanding of the Holocaust and its continuing significance.
shorstein.ufl.edu/graduate-programs