2011 EDITORIAL CALENDER

“I was amazed by the amount of response we got to our ad.”

—DIRECTOR OF MARKETING, TAJ HOTELS

“Moment magazine is an essential resource for our students preparing for careers of leadership in the Jewish community. It has helped Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion recruit for our programs and connected us with our supporters throughout the years. Being part of the Moment community is very important to us. Each issue enlightens, invigorates, and inspires—we love the magazine!”

—JEANIE ROSENSAFT, SENIOR NATIONAL DIRECTOR FOR PUBLIC AFFAIRS AND INSTITUTIONAL PLANNING, HUC.

“AIDA’s partnership with Moment has been a win-win for all. Moment is an exceptional publication with a real diversity of information, from the arts to politics to religion. It is just the type of publication AIDA wants to be part of.”

—ERIKA VOGEL, DIRECTOR OF ASSOCIATION OF ISRAEL’S DECORATIVE ARTS (AIDA)

“As a subscriber and advertiser, I think that Moment is awesome. The staff have been great to work with and running the ads for my books has definitely been worthwhile.”

—STEVE GOLD, YOGA AND JUDAISM PARTS I AND II

“Moment is a great resource for spreading the word about the Judische Kulturbund project I am producing. I recommend Moment to anyone looking for a way to reach support near and far.”

—GAIL PRENSKY, EXECUTIVE PRODUCER AND PROJECT DIRECTOR

WHAT IS MOMENT MAGAZINE?

North America's largest independent Jewish magazine transcends the divides of the Jewish world. Fresh, engaging and always intelligent, Moment offers readers of all ages beautifully written articles, reviews and fiction. Our thoughtful profiles include fascinating people such as Albert Einstein, Jon Stewart and Google's Sergey Brin. Each issue is packed with diverse opinions, providing depth and perspective. As Elie Wiesel says: "Moment is where every Jew should turn."

FROM THE EDITOR

In each issue, Moment editor and publisher Nadine Epstein touches upon important issues and lets readers know what to expect in the current issue.

LETTERS

Some people say you can judge a magazine by its Letters section. A quick glance shows that Moment readers are very engaged in the editorial content, sending in comments and expanding the public discourse.

MOMENT MENTIONS

A roundup of recent discussion—in print and online—about Moment.

OPINION

One of Moment's most talked about sections. The magazine's columnists cover both the political and religious spectra in their points of view, providing a fascinating overview. Columnists include The Nation's Eric Alterman and newmajority.com's David Frum, Gershom Gorenberg, Clifford May, Letty Cottin Pogrebin, Marshall Breger and Naomi Ragen.

JEWISH WORD

This regular department (often humorously) examines the origins and implications of a word or idiom that has made its way into the English vernacular from Jewish culture—be it Yiddish, Ladino, Hebrew, slang, etc.

TOP TEN

From the Top Ten Non-Jews who are often misidentified as Jews to the Top Ten "Jewish" toys, this feature blends history and fun.

FILM WATCH

Moment keeps readers abreast of the latest in Jewish-related films with reviews, essays and suggested selections.

JEWISH ENTERPRISE

A thoughtful profile of an innovative person or project making a difference in the Jewish world and beyond.

HISTORY BOX

A look back on a person who made an impact on the Jewish world and beyond.

ASK THE RABBIS

A forum that appears in each issue, Ask the Rabbis provides a rare opportunity to read the opinions of rabbis from across the spectrum of Judaism. Its purpose is to illuminate the diversity within Jewish thinking and create a cross-denominational discussion that leads to richer understanding. Readers tell us it's a great way to come to a deeper appreciation of Judaism.

A JEWISH LIFE

In nearly every issue, Moment profiles a well-known person who has accomplished a noteworthy feat or in some cases, is just someone worth knowing about. Recent profiles have included Daily Show host Jon Stewart and Google co-founder Sergey Brin.

POEM

Moment selects a poem to publish in each issue.

CARTOON

New Yorker cartoon editor Bob Mankoff draws original cartoons for Moment's pages.

FEATURES

Moment highlights long-form journalism, in particular, feature stories that guide readers through a complex issue and shed fresh light on the past, present or future of the world Jewish community.

EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEWS

Moment Magazine brings some of the world's top thinkers and doers right into your home. Recent interviewees have included Thomas Friedman, Anita Diamant and others.

GALLERY

The magazine's opportunity to showcase an artist or work of art in any kind of medium.

JEWISH HEALTH

Moment's guide to intelligent living, helping readers to stay informed about a wide spectrum of issues that affect our health.

TALK OF THE TABLE

Moment's food section for intellectuals, which covers subjects from chocolate to eggplant to seltzer, and much more, revealing fascinating (and Jewish) history.

BOOKS

The section, edited by former New York Times Sunday Book Review editor Mitchel Levitas, features 3–5 book reviews of current and relevant fiction and non-fiction. Also includes occasional Moment staff picks.

SPEAKING VOLUMES

Talented young authors reflect on a book that had a lasted effect on their life. Contributors include Jay Michaelson, Dara Horn and others.

SPICE BOX

One of the magazine's most popular sections, Spicebox features bloopers from newspapers and advertisements across the country as well as assorted oddities.

CARTOON CAPTION CONTEST

A new addition this year, each Moment issue will feature a cartoon drawn by The New Yorker's Cartoon Editor Bob Mankoff. Readers are invited to submit their captions on Moment's website at momentmag.com.

THE MOMENT CROSSWORD PUZZLE

A new addition this year, David Kahn, who creates puzzles for The New York Times, crafts cleverly-themed puzzles especially for the Moment reader that are based on fascinating and playful Jewish themes.

EXCLUSIVE WEB INTERVIEWS/BLOG

Moment's popular website reaches hundreds of thousands and features content not available in the print edition. InTheMoment blog features quirky and informative content updated on a frequent basis.

MOMENT GUIDES & SUPPLEMENTS

PHILANTHROPY

The Giving Guide

- 93% of Moment readers report they donate to charitable causes. –2009 survey

Moment readers are highly generous and believe that giving is an integral part of Jewish life. Every issue of Moment features this comprehensive resource for our readers to learn about new non-profit organizations and to reacquaint themselves with organizations they might have supported in the past. Moment Magazine has become a hub for non-profits; this prestigious guide provides both large and small, as well as local and international organizations as a proven way to reach North American Jewish communities while building their brand recognition and connecting with new donors. Moment will sometimes dedicate a similar guide to Israeli non-profits. These are advertorial guides.

EDUCATION

- Almost all Moment readers attend/attended college and grad school. They highly value Jewish education and long to be immersed in Jewish learning communities. With that in mind, Moment provides two education guides several times a year. –2009 survey

The Higher Learning Guide

An unparalleled forum for the institutions that are shaping the future leaders of the Jewish community, no other resource guide rivals the Guide to Higher Learning in prestige and visibility. Moment readers have proven themselves to be interested in enrolling in higher education programs, as well as supporting new initiatives in colleges and universities throughout the world. This is an advertorial guide.

The Guide To Continuing Education

Our newest resource, this guide serves adult learners looking to further their Jewish education. From online classes to weekend retreats, continuing education is on the rise and our readers are aspiring to engage themselves like never before.

CAMP

Summer Programs Guide

Jewish culture comes alive all over the world for Jewish youth during the summer months. Summer experiences are as varied these days as kayaking on the Jordan River, volunteering on a Navajo Reservation to learning Italian while celebrating Shabbat in Rome. Campfires and “ruach sessions” are in full swing all over North American Jewish campgrounds and waitlists are long for expeditions and volunteer opportunities every year. The Summer Programming Guide covers it all and provides Jewish families with a one-stop shop to get in the know on the most exciting and sought-after opportunities for their children...and sometimes even for themselves, as well! This is an advertorial guide.

CULTURE

The Book Guide

- More than 73% of Moment readers consider themselves “avid readers.” In the past year, 76% bought more than five books. –2009 survey

When it comes to purchasing Jewish books, Moment readers can't be beat. A 2009 reader survey qualified the importance of this guide: more than 70% of our readers use it to make a book purchase. A great way for publishers to get the word out about new and important titles, the book guide is clearly one of most popular guides and thus, featured in every issue. This is an advertorial guide.

Jewish Music Guide

- 93% of Moment readers use The Jewish Music Guide to find new artists and to keep on top of the Jewish music scene. —2009 survey

Since 2005, Moment readers have been discovering the best in Jewish music in the annual music guide. From bluegrass Klezmer and a capella to beat box rhymes and classic hymns, the Moment Music Guide is eclectic and comprehensive, providing a definitive resource for any music lovers' tastes. Additionally, rabbis, JCC executive directors and school administrators keep the Music Guide on their desks all year long, relying on it to bring the biggest names to their important events. A valued resource, the guide includes information about top Jewish musicians and their CDs, featuring artist bios, photos, and an online component with mp3's at momentmag.com. This is an advertorial guide.

the dynamic Jewish cultural organizations that exist, sometimes in the least expected places. There is no other guide like this in the American Jewish world.

SUPPLEMENTS

Jewish Health

This supplement helps readers to stay informed about a wide spectrum of issues that may affect them and their families. The section features topics of interest to Jews and the general population.

Travel

This supplement informs our well-traveled readers about Jewish destinations that they may not have heard of.

SPONSORED

Jewish Film Festival Guide

The era of the Jewish film festival is upon us! In September 2009, Moment introduced its first annual Jewish film festival guide, providing festivals an unprecedented opportunity to increase their audience and build widespread recognition of their stellar work. Showcasing the importance of Jewish films and filmmakers around the world, this guide quickly became a popular section for Moment readers. This guide will be back in fall 2010, highlighting the newest and most exciting festivals in the 2010–2011 season.

Jewish American Heritage Guide

In recognition of May as Jewish American heritage month, Moment invites you to use this guide as a starting point for your journeys through Jewish museums archives and historical societies. Discover

► In a recent survey, 93% of Moment readers said they religiously read our guides and base decisions on them.
