SCHOOL OF RABBINICAL STUDIES AT HEBREW UNION COLLEGE-JEWISH INSTITUTE OF RELIGION

Discover the unlimited possibilities that the rabbinate offers for you to transform Jewish life while putting your vision and values into action. Guided by our world-class faculty of scholars and mentors, you will experience an extraordinary five-year journey as part of a student community driven by innovation, social conscience, spiritual search, and intellectual meaning. During your first year of study on our Jerusalem campus, you will delve into Jewish text and Israel studies while intensifying your ties to the Jewish people worldwide. For the next four years at our stateside campuses, you will be challenged by academic rigor and openness to questions in Bible, midrash, Talmud, rabbinics, liturgy, theology, history, and more. A broad array of student pulpits, internships, clinical pastoral education, and entrepreneurship projects will expand your professional development. Spiritual guidance and traditional as well as innovative worship will strengthen your ability to guide others. And you can augment your Master's in Hebrew Letters/Literature and Rabbinical Ordination with Master's degrees in Jewish Nonprofit Management, Cantorial Ordination, and/or Educational Leadership and Jewish Learning. You will enjoy boundless professional opportunities to lead and invigorate the largest global Jewish movement and diverse communities throughout North America, Israel, and around the world. Your future as a rabbi will be anything but ordinary. National Office of Admissions and Recruitment

DEBBIE FRIEDMAN SCHOOL OF SACRED MUSIC AT HEBREW UNION COLLEGE-JEWISH INSTITUTE OF RELIGION

Explore how your unique voice can transform people's lives while fostering your own creativity. Your musical talents can flourish as a cantor through an unprecedented breadth of opportunities to lead worship, compose and perform myriad styles of traditional and contemporary music, inspire learning, and offer pastoral care. Your first year in Israel will immerse you in the Hebrew language, Israeli culture, and the rich and complex varieties of Jewish music, worship, ritual, and spirituality that have evolved across the centuries and continents. During your next four years in New York, you will delve into liturgy and liturgical music, Bible, midrash, philosophy, musicology, history, and more, as you strengthen your musicianship, instrumental skills, conducting, composition, and arranging. Our internationally recognized faculty, spiritual guidance, mentored congregational internships, clinical pastoral education, recitals, and entrepreneurial and social action projects will nurture your individual growth. You may augment your Master's in Sacred Music and Rabbinical Ordination with Master's degrees in educational leadership and in Jewish learning, Jewish Nonprofit Management, Rabbinical Ordination, and the Ph.D.

Your voice will unite and inspire others as you find artistic fulfillment and spiritual meaning as a Jewish leader. National Office of Admissions and Recruitment

PINES SCHOOL OF GRADUATE STUDIES AT HEBREW UNION COLLEGE-JEWISH INSTITUTE OF RELIGION

Join a unique community of graduate students from diverse faiths and international backgrounds in a rabbinical seminary environment alive with intellectual inquiry. The world's leading scholars will guide your individualized doctoral programs in Hebrew Bible and History of Biblical Interpretation, Jewish and Christian Studies in the GrecoRoman Period, Rabbinic Literature, and Jewish Thought. We also offer a joint doctoral program in Modern Jewish History and Culture with the Department of History at the University of Cincinnati. You will enjoy unlimited access to our Cincinnati campus's extraordinary resources, including the Klau Library network (the second-largest Jewish library in the world), Jacob Rader Marcus Center of the American Jewish Archives, Archaeology Center, and Skirball Museum, and at our Nelson Glueck School of Biblical Archaeology in Jerusalem. You can begin your journey through our two-year M.A. in Jewish Studies in Cincinnati as a foundation for doctoral studies, which will give you a mastery of Hebrew languages of all periods, skills to teach seminal Hebrew texts within their historical contexts, and treatment of all areas of Jewish studies as they relate to core academic disciplines, including history, literature, law, philosophy, and religion. The M.A. in Jewish Studies is also an excellent way to enrich your knowledge as a lay or professional leader or non-Jewish clergy. Our Summer-In-Israel Program for Ph.D. and M.A. students offers an archaeological dig into ancient Israel, coursework, and the opportunity to experience Israel as a modern state. If you are a rabbi ordained at HUC-JIR (or another accredited Jewish seminary), the Doctor of Hebrew Letters Program offers you the opportunity for independent study and coursework (non-residency) that will revitalize your ongoing work as a learned leader for the Jewish people. Our New York campus offers the Interfaith Doctor of Ministry Program in Pastoral Counseling, designed for ordained clergy of all faiths.
